Benjamin Higgins makes their MFAA Excellence Awards mark

The Mortgage & Finance Association of Australia (MFAA) has announced Benjamin Higgins among the finalists for the industry's annual MFAA Excellence Awards.

This is Benjamin's second consecutive year as an MFAA finalist, nominated in the highly competitive 2017 MFAA Excellence Award Regional Broker category.

I'm honoured to have been recognised by my industry peers and to have been selected from all the entrants across the country and named as a finalist for this Award," said Benjamin Higgins, Mortgage Broker at Killarney Finance.

The last year has been full of changes and challenges for the home lending market, but Benjamin Higgins has been delivering better customer results than ever due to his commitment to and expertise in the lending market and his willingness to run educational seminars, free of charge.

Benjamin states: "I value honesty, transparency and education which I believe has enabled me to grow and prosper during a time of increasing competition".

"We are proud of Ben's continued efforts and it is great he is getting the attention he deserves in the industry," Damien Moriarty, Executive Director, Killarney Finance said.

The MFAA Excellence Awards are the most rigorous in the Australian mortgage and finance industry and are judged by an independent panel of business professionals and experts.

"The MFAA has acknowledged Benjamin Higgins as a state finalist out of more than 450 total awards submission, who have been judged on and rewarded for consistently demonstrating their professionalism, integrity, ethical conduct, innovation and role-model value in the industry," said the MFAA.

Benjamin's continued innovation, growth and success in the industry is to be commended. To be recognised as a finalist speaks volumes of their exceptional practice and professionalism in the mortgage and finance industry," said the MFAA.

The winners will be announced at the MFAA Excellence Awards Presentation Dinner on 18 May 2017 at Adelaide, South Australia. All winners announced on this date will also have the opportunity to win the prestigious national title at the national awards ceremony, which will be held on 27 July in Melbourne.
