Benjamin Higgins makes their MFAA Excellence Awards mark

The Mortgage and Finance Association of Australia (MFAA) has announced Benjamin Higgins among the finalists for the industry's annual MFAA Excellence Awards.

This is Ben's first year as an MFAA finalist, nominated in the highly competitive 2016 MFAA Excellence Awards' Young Professional and Newcomer categories.

"I am honoured to have been recognised by my industry peers and to have been selected from all the entrants across the country and named as a finalist for this Award," said Benjamin, Credit Adviser at Killarney Finance.

The last year has been full of changes and challenges for the home lending market, but Benjamin has been delivering better customer results than ever due to his commitment to and expertise in the lending market and his will to succeed for his clients.

"I value long term relationships with all my clients which I believe has enabled me to grow and prosper during a time of increasing competition.

"It shows Ben has arrived on the big stage, ready to take on the best of the best in Adelaide next month," CEO Damien Moriarty said.

The MFAA Excellence Awards are the most rigorous in the Australian mortgage and finance industry and are judged by an independent panel of business professionals and experts.

"The MFAA has acknowledged 248 finalists who have been judged on and rewarded for consistently demonstrating their professionalism, integrity, ethical conduct, innovation and role-model value," said Siobhan Hayden, CEO of the MFAA.

Benjamin's continued innovation, growth and success in the industry is to be commended. To be recognised as a finalist speaks volumes of their exceptional practice and professionalism in the mortgage and finance industry," said Ms Hayden.

The winners will be announced at the MFAA Excellence Awards Presentation Dinner on 2 June in Adelaide. All winners announced on this date will also have the opportunity to win the prestigious national title at the national awards ceremony, which will be held on 14 July in Melbourne.
